

The Psychology of Superstition

Gustav Jahoda

CONTENTS

Introduction by Judd Marmor, M.D.	ix
1 What is Superstition?	1
Superstition Forming Part of a Cosmology or Coherent World-View	10
Other Socially Shared Superstitions	13
'Occult' Experiences of Individuals	14
Personal Superstitions	15
2 The Prevalence of Superstition	17
Some Public Manifestations of Superstition	18
Systematic Surveys	24
Appendix to Chapter Two	28
Survey Results on Superstitious Beliefs and Practices	28
Table 1: Surveys of the general population	28
Table 2: Surveys of students	31
3 Superstition as Error	33
4 Superstition and the Unconscious	53

5	Superstition as a Conditioned Response	71
6	Superstition as a Social Phenomenon	87
7	Superstition as a Mode of Thinking	98
8	Superstition and Uncertainty	127
9	The Future of Superstition	138
	Index of Names	148
	Index of Subjects	151