29. Selected Critical Questions With Answers :—

1. What, according to Arnold, is the function of Criticism? How far, do you think, is he justified in the views that he expresses in this respect? 261
2. Give an estimate of Matthew Arnold as a literary critic. 265
3. Do you agree with the view that Arnold was rather a propagandist for criticism than a critic, a populariser rather than a creator of ideas? 268
4. Estimate the importance of Arnold's Essays in Criticism in the history of English criticism. 272
5. "Arnold's essays reflect his breath of interest, his intimate appreciation and his wit". Discuss. 277
6. "Arnold's literary criticism is often vitiated by his strong moral sense". Discuss this pronouncement and apply it to Arnold's criticism of Chaucer, Milton, Wordsworth and Byron. 282
7. Indicate and examine the critical position taken up by Matthew Arnold in his essay The Study of Poetry.

Or

8. Indicate and examine the poetic theories propounded in The Study of Poetry. 286
9. Discuss Arnold's view of poetry as a "criticism of life."

Or

10. How far do you agree that poetry is a "criticism of life" ?

Or

11. Discuss Matthew Arnold's views regarding the nature and character of poetry. 290
12. What does Arnold expect from a classic? Examine his assessment of Chaucer. Is he right in rejecting Chaucer as a classic? 293
13. "Dryden and Pope are not classics of our poetry, they are classics of our prose". Discuss this opinion of Arnold's. 297
14. Examine critically Arnold's poetic theories found in his essay on Wordsworth. 302
15. Examine Arnold's estimate of Wordsworth. Indicate where you agree and where you do not agree with this estimate. 304
16. Discuss Matthew Arnold's theories of the function of poetry.

Or

17. "The best poetry is what we want; the best poetry will be found to have a power of forming, sustaining and delighting us, as nothing else can". Examine with illustrations. 308
18. Poetry is "an application of ideas to life." Discuss. Do you agree that a powerful application of ideas to life is an essential of poetic greatness? 312
19. Examine Arnold's estimate of (a) Keats's character and (b) Keats's genius and poetry. Do you agree with Arnold that Keats "is with Shakespeare"? 316

20. Discuss Arnold's estimate of Shelley as "an ineffectual angel beating in the void his luminous wings in vain" with reference to Shelley's poetry.

Or

21. How far do you agree with Arnold that Shelley's poetry suffers from "an incurable want, in general, of a sound subject matter"? 320
22. Examine critically Arnold's assessment of Burns. 323
23. Examine critically Arnold's assessment of Gray. 327
24. Critically examine Arnold's assessment of Byron's poetic genius and performance. 330
25. What is the (a) nature and (b) function of poetry, according to Arnold? 333
26. Discuss the poetic theories propounded by Matthew Arnold. 334
27. Discuss the limitations of Matthew Arnold as a critic.

Or

28. "Arnold's chief limitation as a critic was that he was not aware of his own limitations." Discuss. 334
