

5TH
EDITION

SOCIOLOGY

Robert van Krieken • Daphne Habibis • Philip Smith • Brett Hutchins • Greg Martin • Karl Maton

ALWAYS LEARNING

PEARSON

PREFACE

XVII

ABOUT THE AUTHORS

XVII

CHAPTER 1

WHAT IS SOCIOLOGY?

1

INTRODUCTION

2

The sociological imagination..... 2

The self and social change..... 4

SOME BASIC CONCEPTS

4

Social construction..... 5

Structure and system..... 5

Culture..... 6

Agency..... 7

Socialisation, the self and identity..... 7

Modernity..... 8

Colonialism, settler-colonialism and postcolonialism..... 9

Globalisation and deglobalisation..... 10

SOCIOLOGICAL PERSPECTIVES

10

Science, politics or interpretation..... 11

Sociology as science..... 11

Sociology as politics and critical theory..... 12

Sociology as interpretation..... 12

Gender and feminism..... 13

The question of postmodernity..... 13

THE DEVELOPMENT OF SOCIOLOGY AND SOCIAL CHANGE

14

Sociology's European origins in the age of revolutions, 1840s–1870s..... 14

Sociology's establishment as an academic discipline, 1880s–1910..... 15

The development of interpretivist sociology, 1920s–1930s..... 16

The dominance of functionalist theory, 1940s–1960s..... 16

The rise of conflict theory, 1970s..... 18

Feminist and interactionist sociology, 1970s–1980s..... 18

Postmodernity, 1980s–2000s..... 19

Public sociology..... 19

Internationalising sociology..... 21

AUSTRALIAN SOCIOLOGY

History..... 21

Australian sociological research..... 22

Tutorial exercises..... 22

Further reading..... 24

Websites..... 24

CHAPTER 2

GLOBALISATION

26

INTRODUCTION

27

'SOCIETY' BEYOND THE NATION-STATE

28

Measuring globalisation..... 29

THE SOCIOLOGY OF GLOBALISATION

31

World-systems theory—Immanuel Wallerstein..... 33

The compression of the world—Roland Robertson..... 34

The consequences of late modernity—Anthony Giddens..... 35

Techno-capitalism and inequality—Manuel Castells..... 35

Technology and inequality..... 36

A HISTORY OF GLOBALISATION

36

Six waves of globalisation—Göran Therborn..... 37

The first wave, 300–600..... 37

The second wave, 1500–1600..... 37

The third wave, 1700–1850..... 37

The fourth wave, 1850–1918..... 38

The fifth wave, 1940–70..... 38

The sixth wave, 1980–present..... 38

TECHNOLOGICAL AND ECONOMIC GLOBALISATION

39

International economy and globalised economy..... 41

The size and scope of the global economy	41
Class and global capitalism	42
Neoliberalisation	43
A brief history of neoliberalism	43
Neoliberalism and globalisation	45
The poverty debate	45
The globalisation of poverty	45
Wealth for whom?	47
POLITICAL AND LEGAL GLOBALISATION	47
The withering away of the state?	48
Global governance	49
The globalisation of law	50
Law and globalisation	51
Global law	51
American hegemony	52
The limitations of hegemony	53
The decline of American hegemony—
Wallerstein	53
CULTURAL GLOBALISATION	54
Cultural homogenisation	54
The McDonaldisation of society—George Ritzer	54
The Starbuckisation of society	56
Jihad vs McWorld	56
Clash of civilisations	57
Cultural heterogeneity	57
The global production of difference and hybridity	58
Glocalisation	59
DEGLOBALISATION AND THE CRISIS OF CAPITALISM	59
The anti-capitalist movement—Alex Callinicos	60
The emergence of anti-capitalism	60
The World Social Forum and deglobalisation	61
The 2008 global financial crisis	62
Culture jamming and the Occupy Wall Street movement	62
The Occupy Wall Street movement	64
CRITIQUES OF GLOBALISATION THEORY	65
Globalisation as Northern theory—Raewyn Connell	66
Mechanisms of exclusion, projection and erasure	66
Globalisation beyond the metropole	67
CONCLUSION	67
Tutorial exercises	67
Further reading	68
Films	68

Journals	68
Websites	68

CHAPTER 3

POPULAR CULTURE AND THE MEDIA

70

INTRODUCTION	71
THE MEDIA AND MODERNITY—THOMPSON	72
The rise of the printing industry	73
The emergence of periodical publications	73
The transformation of media institutions into large-scale commercial concerns	73
The globalisation of communication	75
CONCEPTUAL TOOLS—THOMPSON	75
Face-to-face interaction	75
Mediated interaction	76
Mediated quasi-interaction	76
Computer-mediated interaction	77
MEDIA RITUALS	77
Habitual action	78
Formalised action	78
Action involving transcendent values	78
THE MEDIA AS SOCIAL PRACTICE—COULDY	78
MEDIA EVENTS IN A GLOBAL AGE	80
Beyond media events—the Olympic Games	82
THE PUBLIC	83
Habermas and the public sphere	84
The global public sphere	86
CELEBRITY	88
Celebrity and religion	90
THE INTERNET AND MOBILE COMMUNICATIONS	91
The network society and communication power—Castells	92
Community and networked individualism	94
The digital divide	95
MOBILE PHONES	97
THE SOCIOLOGY OF MEDIA INTO THE FUTURE: A MEDIA LIFE?	98
Tutorial exercises	99
Further reading	99
Websites	100

INTRODUCTION	102
THE MODERN, WESTERN FAMILY	103
The Western nuclear family	103
Industrialisation and modern family life	104
The Christian Church and the European family— Jack Goody	104
The Church, property and kinship	104
Marriage and parental control	104
Australian colonial family life	105
The symmetrical family—Michael Young and Peter Willmott	106
SOCIOLOGICAL PERSPECTIVES ON FAMILY LIFE	106
Marxism—the family and the reproduction of capitalism	106
The family as a social construction	106
The contradictory relationship between family life and capitalism	107
Positive and negative aspects of familial ‘irrationality’	107
Undermining patriarchal power	107
The family in permanent crisis	107
Weber’s theory of the family	108
The structure of family life	108
Sex and marriage	108
The historical development of kin group and household	108
Functionalism—the nuclear family as the foundation of society	109
Primary socialisation and personality stabilisation—Talcott Parsons	109
The transfer of functions	109
Feminism and the ‘antisocial family’	110
Domestic violence	110
CULTURE, ETHNICITY AND FAMILY DIVERSITY	111
Aboriginal family life	111
Rural and urban Aboriginal family life	111
Aboriginal family change in Adelaide, 1966–80— Fay Gale	112
Aboriginal families and state intervention: the Stolen Generations	113
Migrant family structure and values	113
Greek families in Australia	114

Lebanese Muslim families in Australia	115
Ethnicity and family diversity: conclusion	116
STRUCTURAL CHANGE IN FAMILY LIFE	116
The fertility decline in Australia	116
The decline in household size	116
From the ‘proper time to marry’ to the ‘proper time to reproduce’—John Caldwell and Lado Ruzicka	117
Baby boom or marriage boom?	119
The post-1970s fertility decline	120
Women’s participation in the workforce	121
Causes and effects of increased female participation in the workforce	122
Marriage, cohabitation and divorce	124
The marriage rate and ex-nuptial child-bearing	124
Adoption	126
Cohabitation	129
Single-parent families	130
Same-sex ‘families of choice’	130
Divorce	131
WHO DOES THE HOUSEWORK AND CHILD CARE?	134
How men and women use their time—the ‘stalled revolution’	134
Money versus gender	136
CHILDREN AND CHILDHOOD	136
Centuries of Childhood —Phillippe Ariès	137
Regulation and rights	138
The social construction of childhood	138
Children’s lives beyond the family	139
Children and divorce	140
Child abuse and neglect	140
TOWARDS THE ‘POST-FAMILIAL FAMILY’?	141
Family ‘decline’	142
Democratisation and egalitarianism—Giddens, Beck and Beck-Gernsheim	142
The Transformation of Intimacy —Anthony Giddens	143
The Normal Chaos of Love —Ulrich Beck and Elisabeth Beck-Gernsheim	143
Continuity and enduring power relations	143
CONCLUSION—THE FUTURE OF FAMILY LIFE	145
Tutorial exercises	144
Further reading	146
Video	146
Websites	146

CHAPTER 5

EDUCATION AND KNOWLEDGE

147

INTRODUCTION 148

EDUCATION IN AUSTRALIA: EVOLVING STRUCTURES AND IDEOLOGIES 148

Liberal humanism and the formation of modern education	149
Social democracy and post-war educational expansion	150
New economism and marketisation	151
Contemporary education in Australia	152

THREE GIANTS—THE PROBLEMS OF CLASS, GENDER AND ETHNICITY 153

Social class	154
Gender	155
Ethnicity	156
Explanations of education—a map of the field	156

NATURALISM: 'NOTHING TO DECLARE BUT MY GENES' 157

Criticisms of naturalism	157
--------------------------------	-----

EXTERNALISM: FULFILLING OTHERS' NEEDS 158

Economic needs—structural functionalism	158
Criticisms of structural functionalism	158
Capitalist needs—reproduction theories	159
Criticisms of reproduction theories	160
Patriarchal needs—gender	160
'The Australian way of life'—ethnicity	161
Criticisms of externalism	161

INTERNALISM: LOOKING INSIDE CLASSROOMS 162

Labelling theory and classroom practices	162
Gender and identity	162
The underperformance of boys	163
Ethnicities	164
Criticisms of internalism	164

CULTURALISM: INTEGRATING INSIGHTS INTO EDUCATION 166

Learning to Labour —Paul Willis	166
Making the Difference —Connell et al.	167
Pierre Bourdieu's field theory	167
Habitus and cultural capital	168
Limitations of Bourdieu's approach	169

Basil Bernstein's code theory	169
Educational knowledge codes	170
FUTURE TRENDS: THE RISE OF KNOWLEDGE	171
Social realism	172
Legitimation Code Theory	173
Specialisation of knowledge practices	173
Semantics of knowledge practices	175
Tutorial exercise	176
Further reading	176
Websites	177

CHAPTER 6

LEISURE, SPORT, TOURISM AND WORK

178

INTRODUCTION 179

LEISURE 179

Leisure in our lives	179
Leisure, power and inequality	181
Taste and cultural capital—Pierre Bourdieu	181
Leisure and social capital	183
Power and conflict over leisure	183
Gender and leisure	184
Women reading—Janice Radway	184
Gender and leisure time—Michael Bittman and Judy Wajcman	184

SPORT 185

Australian participation in sport	185
Sport and modernity	186
From Ritual to Record —Allen Guttman	186
Disciplinary rationalisation in sport—Foucaultian perspectives	187
The civilising process in sports—Eric Dunning	187
Sport and the gender order	188
Gendered patterns of participation in Australia	188
Gender order in Australia	188
Sporting ideology and gender in Australia	189
Sport and sexual violence in Australia—Peter Mewett and Kim Toffoletti	190
David Beckham and the 'new man'	190
Sport, class and race	191

TOURISM 192

The importance of tourism	192
Sociological perspectives on tourism	193

Escaping the real—Daniel Boorstin	193
The search for the 'authentic'—Dean MacCannell	193
The tourist gaze—John Urry	194
Future directions in tourism studies	194
WORK	195
The work and employment profile of Australia	195
The experience of work	195
Multiple factors influencing militancy and strikes—Claire Williams	196
Work, modernity and postmodernity	197
Gender, inequality and work	198
Gender, emotional labour and work in Australia: findings in recent studies	199
Unemployment	200
Unemployment in Australia—a profile	201
CONCLUSION	202
Tutorial exercise	202
Further reading	202
Websites	202

CHAPTER 7

CLASS AND INEQUALITY 203

INTRODUCTION	204
Key concepts	205
Does social inequality matter?	206
INEQUALITY IN A CHANGING WORLD	207
Class, stratification and modernity	207
Locating class in late modernity	208
Understanding contemporary inequality	209
THEORIES OF INEQUALITY	209
Marx's theory of class	209
Positivism	209
Marx's evolutionary theory of social change	209
Historical materialism	209
Modes of production and evolutionary social change	210
Class, class consciousness and the state	211
Criticisms of Marx	211
The legacy of Marx	212
Weber's multidimensional theory of inequality	212
Class as market position	212
Status groups and social closure	212

Parties	213
The legacy of Weber	213
Durkheim and the division of labour	213
The legacy of Durkheim: the functions of inequality	214
Pierre Bourdieu: class and culture	214
The legacy of Bourdieu	215
MATERIAL INEQUALITY IN AUSTRALIA	215
Measuring economic resources	216
The social wage	216
Changes in economic inequality	216
International comparisons of social inequality	216
Poverty and social exclusion	216
Poverty, social exclusion and citizenship	216
Measuring poverty	216
CLASSES IN AUSTRALIAN SOCIETY	216
Changes in the occupational structure	216
Mapping the class structure	216
Weberian maps—Goldthorpe	216
Wright's models of contradictory class locations	216
The upper class	216
Interlocks and networks	216
Unity and division	216
The middle class	217
Middle or working class?	217
The professions and cultural power	217
The working class	217
SOCIAL MOBILITY	217
Measuring social mobility	217
Social mobility in Australia	217
Strategies for social reproduction	217
Tutorial exercise	217
Further reading	217
Websites	217

CHAPTER 8

IDENTITIES: INDIGENOUS, NATIONAL, ETHNIC AND RACIAL 231

INTRODUCTION	232
AUSTRALIAN ABORIGINES AND ABORIGINALITY	232

Australian Aborigines and racial oppression since 1788—a brief history	232
Australian Aborigines and Torres Strait Islanders as 'Fourth World peoples'	233
The survival of Australian Aboriginal culture in everyday life	234
Whitefella Comin' —David Trigger	234
The Camp at Wallaby Cross —Basil Sansom	234
Aboriginal life in a rural small town—Gillian Cowlshaw	235
Aboriginal culture and everyday life—summary	235
Australian Aboriginal land rights, Mabo, Wik and the new cultural identity	236
Social disadvantage and Australian Aboriginality today	236
ETHNICITY	237
MIGRATION	238
Migrant decision making	238
Structural aspects of migration	239
Outcomes of migration	239
Migration to Australia—a historical overview	241
Migration and multiculturalism	242
Flexible ethnicity	242
NATIONALISM AND NATIONAL IDENTITY	243
Ethnic and civic nationalism	243
Australian national identity	244
Australian national identity in historical perspective	244
Popular culture and national identity— Myths of Oz	244
Quantitative research on Australian national identity	245
Multiculturalism and the end of traditional nationalism—Castles et al.	247
Cosmopolitan identities	248
RACISM	249
Old and new racism—historical shifts	249
Institutional racism	250
Racism in Australia	250
Racism and Australia's Indigenous communities	251
Racism in the Australian media	252
Tutorial exercise	252
Further reading	252
Websites	252

CHAPTER 9

GENDER AND SEXUALITY 253

INTRODUCTION	254
Sex, gender and sexuality	255
BIOLOGY, CULTURE, SEX AND GENDER	255
Sociobiology—the evolution of human behaviour	256
Criticisms of sociobiological theories	256
Sex roles—Talcott Parsons	257
Sigmund Freud	258
The problem of cultural diversity	258
Sociology, biology and the body	259
GENDER IDENTITY	260
Role theory	261
Criticisms of role theory	261
The Reproduction of Mothering —Nancy Chodorow	261
Male gender personality	262
Female gender personality	262
Criticisms of Chodorow	263
Masculinities —Raewyn Connell	263
Active bodies	264
Hegemonic masculinity	264
Men's life histories	266
The history of masculinities	267
The 'gender order'	267
SEXUAL CONDUCT AND 'DOING GENDER'	268
Continuums of sexual behaviour—Alfred Kinsey et al.	268
Criticisms of Kinsey	269
The psychology of gender and sexuality after Kinsey	270
Gender display—Erving Goffman	271
Ethnomethodology and symbolic interaction	271
Gender attribution—Kessler and McKenna	272
'Doing gender'—West and Zimmerman	273
Sexual Conduct —John Gagnon and William Simon	273
Sexual scripts	274
Sex as a powerful 'natural' drive	275
Scripting theory	275
SEXUAL IDENTITY AND BEYOND—HETEROSEXUAL, HOMOSEXUAL, QUEER	276
Criticisms of 'categorical' theory	276
Compulsory heterosexuality—Adrienne Rich	276
Criticisms of Rich	277
Sexuality and power—Michel Foucault	277

Beyond sexual identity—queer sexuality	276
Critiques of queer theory	279
TRANSFORMING GENDER AND SEXUALITY	279
The women's movement/feminism	280
The gay and lesbian movement	280
Queer sexual politics	281

SOCIOLOGY AND THE FUTURE OF GENDER AND SEXUALITY	282
Tutorial exercises	283
Further reading	283
Websites	283

CHAPTER 10 HEALTH

284

INTRODUCTION	285
THE RISE OF MODERN MEDICINE	285
THE SOCIOLOGICAL CRITIQUE OF MODERN MEDICINE	286
Michel Foucault and the medical gaze	286
Marxist views on health, class and capitalism	286
Feminist perspectives—controlling women's bodies	287
Micro-perspectives	287
Erving Goffman on the asylum	288
The moral evaluation of patients—Julius Roth	288
The illness narrative	289
THE HOSPITAL	289
DOCTOR-PATIENT INTERACTION	290
Empirical studies on doctor-patient interaction	291
HEALTH, WELFARE AND THE COMMUNITY	292
The decision to see a doctor	292
Lay definitions of sickness	293
THE POLITICAL ECONOMY OF HEALTH AND WELFARE	293
Healthcare in Australia	293
The unexpected consequences of Medicare	294
THE MEDICAL OCCUPATIONS—DOCTORS, NURSES AND ALLIED HEALTH PROFESSIONS	294
Doctors	295
Nurses and allied health professions	295
Recent changes to the medical professions	296
Medical training	296

DEATH AND DYING

Dealing with death	299
--------------------	-----

EPIDEMIOLOGY AND THE SOCIAL CORRELATES OF HEALTH AND ILLNESS

Causes of death	298
Health in the developing world	298
Sickness, health and social inequality	299
Sickness, health and gender	301
Sickness, health, ethnicity and migration	301
Sickness, health and Aboriginal people	302

CURRENT TRENDS—THE END OF BIOMEDICINE AND MEDICAL DOMINANCE?

The rise of alternative therapies	302
Health promotion and preventive medicine	304
Managerialism, consumerism and the end of medical autonomy	305

CONCLUSION

Tutorial exercise	307
Further reading	307
Websites	307

CHAPTER 11 RELIGION

308

INTRODUCTION	309
Definitions of religion	309
Religion and spirituality	310
THEORIES OF RELIGION	310
Functional theories of religion	310
Durkheim	311
Civil religion	311
Materialist theories of religion	312
Marx	312
Phenomenological theories of religion	313
Religion as a sacred canopy	314
Criticisms of Berger and Luckmann	314
Feminist theories of religion	314
The deconstruction of religious traditions	314
Religion as an instrument for the oppression of women	315
The feminist reconstruction of religion	315
The influence of feminism on the Christian Church	315
SCIENCE AND RELIGION	316

RELIGION AND SOCIAL CHANGE	316
Religion as the source of social change	316
The Protestant Ethic and the Spirit of Capitalism —Max Weber	317
Religion as a conservative influence on society	317
The effects of religious beliefs on political and social attitudes	318
Religion as a radical influence on society	318
Liberation theology	319

SECULARISATION	319
Evidence in support of secularisation	319
Problems with the secularisation thesis	321
Secularisation or post-secularisation?	322

EXPLAINING THE RESURGENCE OF RELIGION	323
The search for moral guidance	323

CONTEMPORARY RELIGIOUS EXPRESSION	324
Fundamentalism	324
Christian fundamentalism in the United States	324
Islamic fundamentalism	325
Explanations of the appeal of fundamentalism	327
New forms of religiosity	327
New Age movements	328
Neo-paganism	328
Locating new forms of religiosity in modernity	329

THE FUTURE OF RELIGION	329
Tutorial exercise	331
Further reading	331
Websites	331

CHAPTER 12

POWER AND THE STATE 332

INTRODUCTION	333
---------------------	------------

DEFINING POWER	333
Max Weber	333
Charismatic authority	334
Traditional authority	334
Rational-legal authority	334
Types of social action	335

BUREAUCRACY, DISCIPLINE AND THE STATE	335
The 'technical superiority' of bureaucracy, or TINA	335
Bureaucracy, discipline and power	336

Stateless societies	336
The emergence of the modern state and bureaucracy	337
The sources of social power—Michael Mann	337
The Australian state	337
The Constitution and the High Court	337
The federal structure	338
A Weberian approach to the Australian state—Sol Encel	339

SOCIAL MOVEMENTS, OLD AND NEW	339
Social movements as symbolic politics—Herbert Blumer	340
New social movements	341
Australian social movements and globalisation—Verity Burgmann	341

RETHINKING POWER—THE POWER ELITE VERSUS THE RULING CLASS	342
Elite theory	342
The power elite—C. Wright Mills	343
Elite theory in Australia	343
Power is like money—Talcott Parsons	344
Pluralism	345
The three faces of power—Steven Lukes	346
The power of hegemony—Antonio Gramsci	346
The Australian ruling class—Raewyn Connell	347
Australian hegemony	347
Intellectuals and counter-hegemony	348
New directions in elite formation	349

POWER AND THE SELF	349
Knowledge, discipline and government—Michel Foucault	349
Knowledge, discourses and power	349
The history of sexuality	350
Modern individuality and power	350
Disciplinary power	351
Governmentality	353
Power in the viewer society	355
Power as effect—Bruno Latour	355
The civilising process —Norbert Elias	355
Court society—representational power	356

POST-DEMOCRACY—COLIN CROUCH	357
Tutorial exercises	358
Further reading	358
Websites	358

CHAPTER 13CRIME AND DEVIANCE*359

INTRODUCTION	360
DEFINING CRIME AND DEVIANCE	361
THE SOCIAL CONSTRUCTION OF OFFICIAL CRIMINAL STATISTICS	361
The dark figure of crime—undetected and unreported crime	362
Changing definitions of crime	362
Changing resources of law and order	362
The influence of discretionary decisions within the criminal justice system	363
THEORIES OF CRIME AND DEVIANCE	363
Biological and psychological theories of crime and deviance	363
Sociological theories of crime and deviance	364
Deviance—a functionalist perspective	364
Traditional functionalists	364
Anomie theory	365
The Chicago School	365
The ecology of deviance	365
The ethnography of deviance	365
Criticisms of the Chicago School	366
Social control theory	366
Wilson and Herrnstein	366
Social control theory—an assessment	367
Crime control and the New Right	367
Deviance—an interactionist perspective	368
Primary and secondary deviance—Edwin Lemert	368
Labelling theory—Howard Becker	368
Deviance amplification; moral panics and collective reactions	369
Deviance and the interactionist perspective—criticisms and evaluation	369
Deviance and power—conflict perspectives	369
Deviance—the conventional Marxist perspective	369
The second wave—neo-Marxist and 'socialist' perspectives	370
Left realism—the new reformism?	370
Feminist theories of crime and deviance	371
Women and social control—Heidensohn	371
Masculinities and the accomplishment of gender through crime—Messerschmidt	371
Feminist theory—an evaluation	372

Crime, shame and reintegration	372
Postmodern challenges to the sociology of crime and deviance	372

PATTERNS OF CRIME IN AUSTRALIA

Crime rates in Australia over time	374
Community attitudes towards crime	374
Offenders	374
Young people and crime	374
Young people and gangs	374
Young people and the police	374
Offending women	374
Hate crime	374
Victims	374
Violence against women	374
Indigenous people and crime	374
The Royal Commission into Aboriginal Deaths in Custody	374
Crimes of the powerful	374
Class and crime	374
The costs of crimes of the powerful	374
Class and the criminal justice system	374
CRIME AND GLOBALISATION	387
Tutorial exercise	389
Further reading	389
Websites	389

CHAPTER 14METHODS OF SOCIAL RESEARCH*391

INTRODUCTION	392
POSITIVISM AND QUANTITATIVE METHODOLOGY	393
Positivist sociology	393
Social facts as 'things'	393
Statistics	393
Laws of human society and inductive methodology	393
Falsification and the hypothetico-deductive model—Karl Popper	394
Paradigms and scientific revolutions—Thomas Kuhn	394
Paradigms	394
Scientific revolutions	395
Anti-positivism and relativism—Peter Winch	395
The comparative method	396

THE SOCIOLOGY OF SUICIDE	396	MARX AND WESTERN MARXISM	419
Suicide rates	396	Ideology	419
Types of suicide	397	Alienation	420
Criticisms of Durkheim's study	398	Social change	420
Categorising death as suicide—J. Maxwell Atkinson	398	Western Marxism	421
Suicide in Australia—Riaz Hassan	399	Antonio Gramsci	421
		The Frankfurt School	421
INTERPRETIVE AND QUALITATIVE METHODOLOGY	400	WEBER AND CONFLICT SOCIOLOGY	422
Qualitative data and the interpretive approach	401	Capitalism and ascetic Protestantism	423
Verstehen sociology—Max Weber	401	The Protestant ethic	424
Symbolic interactionism	401	The spirit of capitalism	424
Applications and criticisms of symbolic interactionism	402	Conflict sociology	425
Phenomenology	403	Authority and conflict—Ralf Dahrendorf	425
Ethnomethodology	404	Conflict Sociology —Randall Collins	425
The realist view of science	404	SIMMEL AND SOCIAL INTERACTIONISM	425
Scientific research 'systems'	405	Simmel's concept of society and sociology	426
Studying the unobservable	405	Relationism and reciprocal working	426
Causation	405	Social relations—forms and types	427
Sociology as science	406	The philosophy of money and objective culture	428
Feminist research	406	Simmel—an evaluation	429
Triangulation or methodological pluralism	406	Interactionism and interpretive sociology	429
		Symbolic interactionism	429
STREET CORNER SOCIETY	408	Ethnomethodology	430
Cornerville revisited	409	BEYOND CLASSICAL SOCIOLOGY?	431
Boelen's critique of Whyte	409	Feminist sociology	431
Whyte's reply	410	Beyond public and private—Anna Yeatman	432
The wider significance of street corner society	410	Modernity, the Enlightenment and beyond	432
Possibilities for action research	411	Postmodernism and knowledge—Jean-François Lyotard	433
A note on representation	411	Simulations —Jean Baudrillard	433
Tutorial exercises	413	Second modernity and 'zombie sociology'—Ulrich Beck	434
Further reading	413	First and second, reflexive modernity	434
Websites	413	Sociological theory and society beyond the nation-state	435
CHAPTER 15	414	SOCIOLOGY TODAY	436
SOCIOLOGICAL THEORY		Tutorial exercises	437
		Further reading	437
INTRODUCTION	415	Websites	437
DURKHEIM AND THE SOCIAL	416
Social facts	417	BIBLIOGRAPHY	483
The collective conscience and moral order	417	GLOSSARY	473
The division of labour, differentiation of society and social solidarity	418	AUTHOR INDEX	488
Anomie and justice	418	SUBJECT INDEX	496
Talcott Parsons and the problem of social order	418		